When Herod realized that he had been outwitted by the Magi, he was furious, and he gave orders to kill all the boys in Bethlehem and its vicinity who were two years old and under, in accordance with the time he had learned from the Magi.

“In Bethlehem in Judea,” they replied, “for this is what the prophet has written:

She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins.

This is he who was spoken of through the prophet Isaiah: “A voice of one calling in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for him.’”

“But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for out of you will come a ruler who will shepherd my people of Israel.”

All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet:

“I baptize you with water for repentance. But after me comes one who is more powerful than I whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

On coming to the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshiped him. Then they opened their treasures and presented him with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

“The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel” (which means “God with us”).

Blessed are the meek, for they

Jesus answered him, "It is also written: 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'"

Jesus said to him, "Away from me, Satan! For it is written:
'Worship the Lord your God,
and serve him only.'"

The people living in darkness
have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned.

His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor, gathering his wheat into the barn and burning up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

And a voice from heaven said,
"This is my Son, whom I love;
with him I am well pleased."

Jesus answered, "It is written:

alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"

| Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you. | You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. | You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden.   |

But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,

That you may be children of your Father in heaven. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.

Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, makes her the victim of adultery, and anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

All you need to say is simply 'Yes' or 'No'; anything beyond this comes from the evil one.

But I tell you, do not resist an evil person. If anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to them the other cheek also.

Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house.

In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished.

Give us today our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

And when you pray, do not
keep on babbling like pagans,
for they think they will be heard because of their many words.

This, then, is how you should
pray: "Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,

Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing,

So that your giving may be in secret. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

But when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray
to your Father, who is unseen.
Then your Father, who sees
what is done in secret, will reward you.

When Jesus heard this, he was amazed and said to those following him, "Truly I tell you, I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith."

I say to you that many will come from the east and the west, and will take their places at the feast with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.

But the subjects of the kingdom will be thrown outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it.

But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

If you, then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts to those who ask him!

So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.

They came out of the tombs after Jesus' resurrection and went into the holy city and appeared to many people.

Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

About three in the afternoon Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" (which means "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?").

And when Jesus had cried out again in a loud voice, he gave up his spirit.
